IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTIION

Civil Application No. 2946 of 2007
in
Writ Petition No. 4866 of 2002

1. Balmer Lawrie and Co. Ltd. ..Applicants vs.

1. The Chief Controlling
Revenue Authority and others ..Respondents

Shri Birendra Saraf for applicants
Shri S.K.Chinchalikar,A.G.P. for respondents.

CORAM: S.C.DHARMADHIKARI J.
30th NOVEMBER, 2007

P.C.

1. Without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the applicants, Shri Saraf states that a sum of Rs. 1 Crore which would cover the deficit stamp duty and some amount of penalty will be deposited with the Respondents within a period of four weeks. If this amount is deposited, as stated before me, ad-interim order, passed by this Court, while admitting writ petition to stand revived on condition that in so far as the balance sum is concerned, the applicants would give an undertaking to this Court that they would pay the sum as and when demanded after the writ petition is decided.

2. Liberty to seek appropriate relief with regard to registration of the pending document with the stamp authority. The said relief can be obtained if the statement made today is complied with.

3. Civil Application is disposed of in the above terms.
